ANNUAL JERSEY SALE WEDNESDAY

A. P. Walker Will Conduct His Sixth
Yearly Auction at Jersey Isle
Stock Farm.

PROMINENT FANCIERS COMING

Minister, a Bull With a Long Pedigree is Expected to Bring Enormous Price Under Hammer.

The annual Jersey cattle sale will be held at the Jersey Isle stock farm about four miles west of the city Wednesday. It is the sixth annual sale managed by A. P. Walker and it promises to come to the standard set by the previous sales. This year sixty head of the finest cattle produced on the Island of Jersey, which is famous for its cattle breeding, will be sold to the highest bidder. The auction will begin promptly at ten-thirty o'clock in the morning.

The annual sale has come to be a great event in Rushville. Prominent Jersey cattle fanciers from all parts of the United States flock here for the auction. Many of them, even if they do not care to make a purchase, come here for the express purpose of seeing the stock which Mr. Walker has in his barns. Mr. Walker has come to be recognized as one of the leading Jersey cattle men of the United States, although he has been in the business only a few years.

Mr. Walker has already received word from a number of the big Jersey cattle men, who say that they will be here with the intention of taking back home some of his stock. In previous years the cattle men have arrived here several days early to make a thorough examination of the big barn of high bred Jerseys.

Minister, a Jersey bull with a long pedigree, will be sold this year and it is thought that he will bring as large a price as Derry's Golden Jolly did last year. He sold for $11,000 and later died. The bull to be sold this year is a perfect specimen of the cattle kept by Mr. Walker and he is banking his hopes on Minister bringing the record price for Jersey bulls in America. He is only one of the numerous head which Mr. Walker will auction off under the hammer.

It will be remembered that Derry's Golden Jolly, who brought $11,000 at last year's sale, died shortly afterwards. This, however, was no fault of Walker's as he was in perfect condition when taken away from the local stock farm. Minister, who is expected to bring as good a price this year, was leased to the fanciers who purchased Derry's Golden Jolly last year, was kept by them for several months.

Mr. Walker in previous years has entertained many of his buyers at his spacious country home on the Jersey Isle stock farm. It has been his custom to hold a short meeting of the visiting buyers on the night before the sale, when good fellowship talks are made and the advantages of the Jersey are dwelt upon considerably. Last year he had several men here for that occasion and a short round of speeches was made. It was held in the cattle tent, which is erected each year for the auction. Aside from the speeches, the short musical program was rendered by the Young Woman's Glee club of this city.

The sale has come to occupy a place on the calendar of numerous local people. It is made a gala day, not only to many farmers, but also people from this city. In previous years, and especially last year, the auction tent would not cover all of the people who went out to the stock farm to get a view of the blinking Jerseys. If weather conditions do not interfere this year, it is expected that even a larger crowd will be present.

ent. Many women have taken interest in the sale and make an annual trip there.

Mr. Walker has made a reputation for Rushville and himself in his importing and breeding of fancy Jersey cattle. The sale is known all over the United States to prominent cattle men and it places Rushville on the map to many of them. Mr. Walker has been in the business only a comparatively few years, but in that time has attained even unexpected success. He makes the trip to Jersey Isle each year and imports several head of the fancy Jerseys which he disposes of at his annual auction. He also breeds a few cattle. The Walker sign on the Jerseys has come to be the sign of perfection.

MANILLA DOCTOR MAY LEAVE RUSH

Dr. J. D. Green, Uncle of Local Men,
Trades His Residence For a
Newton County Farm.

WILL PROBABLY CHANGE HOME

Dr. J. D. Green, an uncle of Dr. Frank H. Green, Dr. Charles Green and Derby Green of this city, has traded his residence property in Manilla to George W. Cox for a farm consisting of 342 acres located in Newton county. The Green residence is the largest in Manilla and was formerly occupied by the late C. E. Trees. The deal was consummated Saturday. Dr. Green has not decided definitely about leaving Manilla. He has resided there since 1896 and has built up a large and lucrative practice. Dr. Green owns a large farm near Plainfield and he may decide to move there for permanent residence. Mr. Cox has not decided about where he will locate, but it is probable that he will move to Manilla. Dr. Green and family are among Manilla's most prominent citizens and the best wishes of hundreds of friends will follow them in their new place of residence.

MARSHAL INJURED; GAMBLERS GET BUSY

Keeper of Peace at Glenwood Cuts
Foot and "City Sports" Shuffle
Cards For Good Sum.

RUMOR REHEARSES RARE TALE

The marshal of the town of Glenwood has a badly cut foot and thereby hangs a tale that causes the hair to stand straight up on some of the residents of that village. Rumor has it that an Indianapolis gambler was able to take down about one hundred dollars from a resident of Glenwood and another, who is still in the ranks of the amateurs, was fortunate enough to find another man who was willing to give up $97 to see the cards run. And all of this is merely rumor.

Anyway, the town of Glenwood is all agog over the practice of the knights of the Round Table right within the corporate limits of the little city. They lay the intrusion of the gamblers to the fact that the marshal is "laid up" and is unable to attend his duties of protecting the citizens from the outrages of the city grafters. The marshal's cut foot is improving.

SERMON MUCH APPRECIATED

Annual Baccalaureate Services at the Christian Church Last Night
Attracted Immense Crowd.

FILLED CHURCH COMPLETELY

The Rev. J. W. Turner Preached a Forceful Sermon on "The Mastery of the Mind."

A crowd that filled the main auditorium and the Sunday school room of the Main Street Christian church with many standing on the outside was present for the annual baccalaureate sermon last night. The Rev. J. W. Turner, pastor of the St. Paul M. E. church, delivered the address on the subject "The Mastery of the Mind."

The twenty-two graduates, fourteen girls and eight boys, marched into the church and took the seats allotted to them after the congregation had been seated. The sight was a pleasing one to the friends and relatives of the members of the graduating class. The class is one of the largest ever graduated from the local school.

The services were opened at seven-thirty o'clock when the students and faculty of the high school marched down to their seats. After a hymn by the choir and the audience, the Rev. E. C. Myers, pastor of the First Baptist church, read the scripture lesson. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. A. W. Jamieson, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, and a special program of music was rendered by the choir. Following the delivering of the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Turner and some special music by the choir, benediction was pronounced by the Rev. R. W. Abberley, pastor of the Christian church.

The sermon by Rev. Turner was a masterful address and very forceful. He made much of his subject, "The Mastery of the Mind." He impressed upon the high school students present the necessity of a strong mind, which is to be gained only by hard study. The speaker made plain the point that it was the thinking man who met with success in the world.

LEAVE TO ATTEND SYNOD MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trabue go to Philadelphia, Where Mr. Trabue is Delegate to Convention.

TO VISIT POINTS OF INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trabue left today for Philadelphia, Pa., to attend the annual meeting of the Synod of the United Presbyterian church. Mr. Trabue goes as a delegate from this district. It is considered a great honor to Mr. Trabue, considering his age, to be appointed as a delegate to the highest executive body of the church in the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Trabue will spend tomorrow in Washington sightseeing. They will be gone in all two weeks, although the session lasts only eight days. On their return trip they will visit New York and Niagara Falls and will enjoy a trip up the Hudson. The Synod convenes Wednesday.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Mrs. Captora Hahn and Frank Shepler.

PLAN TO MOVE ON RICHMOND

Local Contingent Will go Tomorrow to be Present at Democratic Sixth District Convention.

TO WHOOP IT UP FOR LON MULL

Who is One of Five Candidates and Who is Now Conceded Victory by Many.

The advance guard, including the Mull contingent and a part of the Rush county delegation will move on Richmond tomorrow, where the Sixth district Democratic convention will be held Wednesday. The race for the nomination promises to be a pretty one with the Rush county product having a slight advantage. The local Democrats are planning to make a great fight for their favorite son.

Several politicians will go to Richmond tomorrow. The remainder from Rushville will go up to the "panic proof" city Wednesday morning over the Pennsylvania. Arrangements have been made so that the train which is due in here at 3:35 in the afternoon will be held until the convention makes a choice. There are several towns and cities on this branch which will send representatives to the convention and the railroad authorities have consented to accommodate them to that extent.

The local Democrats are planning to whoop it up in great style for Lon Mull, one of the five candidates for the congressional nomination. A drum corps from this city will be taken up by the local delegation to "beat it" for Mull. Mr. Mull will have headquarters in one of the hotels in Richmond and, it is said, will attempt to land the nomination at any cost.

Rush county will probably furnish her full quota of spectators. Many local politicians are planning to go up Wednesday morning to be there in time for the selection of a nominee. The delegates will be compelled to go to Richmond on Tuesday evening to be there in time for the morning session of the convention which begins at ten-thirty.

According to newspapers over the Sixth district, things look very bright for the Rush county product. They all concede the nomination to him, even though he has four other strong opponents. Rev. Kuhn, who has been dubbed the Bryan of the Sixth district, is touted as the second best candidate and believed by many to be the man who will carry off the honors. It is said that Rev. Kuhn will carry the Wayne county delegation entirely. Wayne has 26 delegates, the largest number of any county in the district. Shelby is a close second with 21, while Rush has only thirteen.

Unless all indications fail the convention will be the most enthusiastic that has ever been held by any party in the Sixth district. In previous

RING LOST DECADE AGO

Diamond Laying in Field Ten Years is in Good Condition.

About ten years ago while looking after some sheep which had been killed by dogs on the farm now tenanted by Adam Posz, one half mile west of Middletown, near St. Paul, Ben Corts lost a valuable diamond ring. After a fruitless search Corts gave it up as gone. Yesterday as he was going through the same field he chanced to find the ring. It was in good condition and its brilliancy was not impaired by its long exposure to the elements.

years the nomination has never been sought after by more than two candidates and the fact that five candidates are seeking the honor this year proves conclusively the contest will be very spirited and may last all afternoon.

All of the delegates to the convention have been selected and every county will be on hand with her full delegation. Henry was the last county in the district to select her delegates. Several of the number were selected some time ago and the rest were chosen last Saturday.

The convention promises to produce another innovation outside of the unusual amount of enthusiasm, and that is that no choice will be made on the first ballot. There are one hundred thirty-one delegates to the convention, making sixty-six necessary for a choice. Reports from all parts of the district indicate that at least fifty complimentary votes will be cast on the first ballot. Three bands will enliven the occasion with strains from "Marching through Georgia," "Down in Dixie" and other patriotic airs.

DEDICATE FIRST CHURCH IN TOWN

Rev. E. W. Harlow, Brother of City
Marshal, Pastor of Only Religious Organization in Bargserville.

FLOCK ONLY SIX MONTHS OLD

The new town of Bargserville dedicated its first church Sunday. The dedicatory services were in charge of the pastor, the Rev. E. W. Harlow, brother of City Marshal Jesse Harlow. Rev. Harlow's mother, who makes her home here, attended the ceremony. The picture of the Rev. Mr. Harlow and the new church appeared in the Indianapolis News.

Six months ago a congregation of United Brethren was organized and a revival was begun that soon made the flock number forty. A movement to build a church was started, with the result that a building costing $4500 has just been completed. The Rev. Dr. C. O. B. Brane, associate editor of the Religious Telescope of Dayton preached the dedicatory sermon. Bargserville is three years old and has five hundred inhabitants.

Twenty-seven years ago yesterday the heaviest snow of the year fell. But that was in the olden days and in this twentieth century of improvements nothing like that ever happens. Bert Moorman, who was born on that day, says that he recalls the snow storm.

SUNDAY GREAT DAY FOR SINGERS

Crowd of 1500 People Gathered at Morristown For Annual Diapason
Class Exercises.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE ATTEND

For Forty Years the Old Tunes Have Been Sung There on Fourth
Sunday in May.

The I. & C. traction cars were crowded yesterday with crowds of people from Rushville and vicinity going to attend the annual meeting of the Diapason Singers. Many local members of the old Diapason Singing class from this county attended yesterday and assisted in the service. The local Diapasons have been invited to sing at the Bethany Assembly which meets in July.

The singing exercises as is the case annually, attracted a great crowd of visitors, the number who heard the exercises this year being estimated at 1500. Not half the crowd could get inside the church, but the others crowded about the doors and windows and were in this way able to enjoy to some extent the excellent program given by the Diapasons.

The reunion was held in the M. E. church and about forty members of the class were present, the singing being led by Rev. Alonzo Meyer of Muncie. The program began at 2 o'clock and was not completed till 3:30.

One of the impressive features was a historical reading by Rev. Weber of Morristown, giving information about the Old Missouri Harmony singing class, and chronicling the death of all the members but two.

One of these survivors is Mrs. Phoebe Cotton of near Manilla, now past eighty years of age. The history also told how the Diapason class was former and gave much information regarding the deceased and surviving members of that class.

For forty years the fourth Sunday in May has been the old folks' singing day at Morristown. Seventy-five years ago the young people of that community organized a singing school and under the leadership of Dr. David S. McGaughey, sang in the Old Missouri Harmony.

CAMPS ON TRAIL OF BOOTLEGGER

Policeman Wolters Watched For Alleged Liquor Dealer Sunday
But Was Unsuccessful.

SAID MINORS GAVE HIM MONEY

Policeman Wolters camped on the trail of an alleged bootlegger all day Sunday, but was unsuccessful in his attempt to catch him. He heard that a man had been given money by several minors to go to Indianapolis to purchase liquor. It is known that the man bought a round trip ticket to Indianapolis, but if he came back the same way he went Policeman Wolters never saw. He was stationed at the Innis, Pearce Co. furniture factory most of the afternoon, but failed to get on the tracks of the supposed liquor dealer.

PEORIA HAS A HOTEL TRAGEDY

Young Woman School Teacher Found Dead In Bed.

HER COMPANION HELD IN JAIL

S. Easterly, a Freight Conductor, and Miss Minnie Ahlers, a School Teacher, Registered as Man and Wife at the Metropolitan—Easterly Left Room in Morning and Upon Returning Found Girl Dead.

Peoria, Ill., May 23.—Miss Minnie Ahlers, aged twenty, a pretty school teacher of Princeville, was found dead in bed at the Metropolitan hotel here at 7 o'clock Sunday morning with three bullet holes in her body, one through the left lung and her heart pierced by the other two. S. Easterly, aged twenty-five, of Milcothe, freight conductor on the Santa Fe, who for a little less than a year, it is alleged, has had clandestine relations with the girl, is in jail here, but has not yet been formally charged with the crime. Easterly and Miss Ahlers came to Peoria at noon Saturday and registered at the hotel as man and wife. They occupied the same room Saturday night and, according to Easterly, the girl spent half the night in tears. He arose a few moments prior to the shooting, dressed and made his way to the buffet below. He was absent for about fifteen minutes, and upon his return to the room discovered the dead body. The prisoner told the coroner, it is said, that he came to Peoria with the girl upon her promise to leave him here and go to Wyoming, agreeing to have nothing further to do with him. He said they had not quarreled and that she gave no intimation of a desire to take her life.

TAKING NO CHANCES

Excitable Passenger Created Scene on Train at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, May 23.—William J. Mulkey, enroute from North Carolina to Missouri, was waked up at the union station here by the conductor of a Pennsylvania train and told that he would have to change cars. Mulkey did not seem to comprehend the situation, and when the conductor told him that he would have to leave the car he drew a pistol and began firing right and left.

Five chambers of his pistol were discharged before he could be overpowered. One bullet entered the thigh of a passenger on the train, making a serious wound. With the first shot from the revolver the women in the car began to scream, men ducked under the seats and several persons went headlong out of the windows and the crowd in the station scampered in every direction.

Mulkey was arrested and said that he thought he was being attacked and that his life was in danger.

Watchman Burned to Death in Blaze That Destroyed Conn's Factory.

Elkhart, Ind., May 23.—The plant of the C. C. Conn company, said to be the largest manufacturers of brass band instruments in the world, was destroyed by fire early last night, entailing a loss of $500,000. One of the night watchmen, Roy Edgerly, was burned to death.

Solved the Mystery.
Chicago, May 23.—Albert C. Gordon, for nineteen years a Chicago mail carrier, has been arrested by order of Postoffice Inspector James E. Stuart, who says Gordon has confessed to robbing the mails for more than four years. Complaints from all over the country during the last four years of the loss of money from registered letters had baffled officials.

Taggart Dines Indiana Congressmen.
Washington, May 23.—Thomas Taggart of Indiana gave a dinner at the New Willard last night to the eleven Democratic members of the house from Indiana. Mr. Taggart, who arrived in Washington late Sunday afternoon, explained that his visit was purely personal business and without political significance.

BIG BATTLE IN GRAIN NOW ON AT CHICAGO

Both Waterman and Lichstein In a Way to Lose.

Chicago, May 23.—Memories of the days when the late P. D. Armour had a fleet of steam freighters breaking the ice in Lake Superior to rush northern wheat from Duluth to Chicago and crush Joseph Leiter in his attempt to corner the grain market have been recalled in the last few days to old-timers on the board of trade by the battle between Theodore L. Waterman, the Albany (N. Y.) miller, and A. J. Lichstein, the Chicago dealer who has sold "short" a long line of May wheat, all of which has been bought by Mr. Waterman. In the last two weeks Mr. Lichstein's wheat cargoes have formed an almost continuous line between Duluth and Chicago. He has but eight days more in which to deliver on his contracts, a settlement being required before 11 o'clock Tuesday, May 31. While Mr. Waterman insists he will be able to handle and pay for all the wheat he has bought, which is estimated at not less than 5,000,000 bushels, grain men believe both he and Mr. Lichstein, together with a host of smaller traders, stand to lose big sums of money unless they effect a private settlement.

BACK TO WASHINGTON

Senator Lorimer May Ask Senate to Investigate His Case.

Washington, May 23.—Senator Lorimer of Illinois returned to Washington Saturday, and soon after his arrival here it was reported that the senator had just about made up his mind to ask the senate to investigate the charges of bribery that have been made in connection with his election.

Senator Lorimer was working for several hours after he got here in preparation of a statement, and the impression is that it is the defense which he will make when he asks that the charges be investigated. The senator declined to be interviewed. Mr. Lorimer has been absent from Washington for several weeks.

RAILWAY BILL BEING PUSHED

Will Be In Conference By Latter Part of Week

A PROLONGED CONTROVERSY

All Signs Point to a Deadlock When the Administration Measure Goes to the Conference Committee of the Two Houses—Insurgents Say That Every Republican in the Senate Will Vote For Bill on First Passage.

Washington, May 23.—The indications are that the administration railway bill will be in the hands of the conference committee by the latter part of the week. It will be passed in the senate Thursday or Friday unless further obstacles are placed in its way by the insurgents. Debate on the bill will be resumed tomorrow. The Cummins amendment providing that increased rates shall not become effective until approved by the interstate commerce commission is the principal matter in the controversy now.

It will be debated for a day or two. The lines are closely drawn on the Cummins amendment and it will be beaten or adopted by a narrow margin. The insurgents express the belief that the amendment will be incorporated in the bill. All signs point to a prolonged controversy in conference over the bill. The long and short clause and the sections of the house bill relating to capitalization will excite a great deal of controversy.

While it has not yet been determined whether the senate shall retain in the bill pending in that body the sections bearing on capitalization, this subject will come up in conference, inasmuch as the house bill contains features along this line. According to statements made by insurgents every Republican senator will vote for the administration bill when it is put on its final passage.

Nicaraguans Finally Pull Off Long-Expected Battle.

Washington, May 23.—The state department has been advised by Thomas P. Moffatt, American consul at Bluefields, that a two-day engagement between the Estrada and Madriz forces has taken place near Rama. The result of the battle is not definitely known. The Estrada forces lost fourteen killed and their wounded number twenty-nine, all of whom have been brought to Bluefields for treatment. The casualties of the Madriz forces are unknown. General Mena, one of the insurgent leaders, retired to his intrenchments after the fight.

Large quantities of provisions and ammunition which are represented to be the entire stores of Madriz forces, are reported to have been captured by insurgents.

The entire insurgent force is now said to be attacking Rama, in which place there is neither food nor ammunition. The Madrizists are said to be surrounded. It is expected by the insurgent sympathizers that news of the surrender of Rama will be received shortly.

Roosevelt Reception of National Scope

That the reception to be given Col. Theodore Roosevelt upon his return to this country on June 18 is to be national in scope and not confined to the city of New York, is officially announced by Cornelius Vanderbilt, chairman of the committee.

When the Citizens' Committee was appointed by Mayor Gaynor of New York some time ago the intention was that the city itself should receive the former President. But immediately it became evident that the entire country wished to share in the welcome, and that Col. Roosevelt himself desired that the wish be granted. Letters from individuals and organizations all over the Union were received asking for position in the land parade, and several sent representatives to confer with Capt. Arthur F. Crosby, the committee's secretary at 146 Broadway.

The committee, therefore, announces to the country at large that any organization in good standing will be given a position in the parade, the out-of-town bodies being accorded the right of the line. As many political, social, business and other organizations and the clubs have already placed their applications on file, Capt. Crosby requests that all wishing to take part in the welcome notify him immediately at the committee's headquarters, 146 Broadway, New York.

While many minor details have not been decided on, the general arrangements have been determined. Col. Roosevelt will sail on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria of the Hamburg-American line and will reach quarantine in the upper bay at 9 o'clock. The committee is able to name the precise hour of arrivals, arrangements have been made with the steamship company to delay or increase the speed of the Kaiserin so that she will make quarantine at the exact time set.

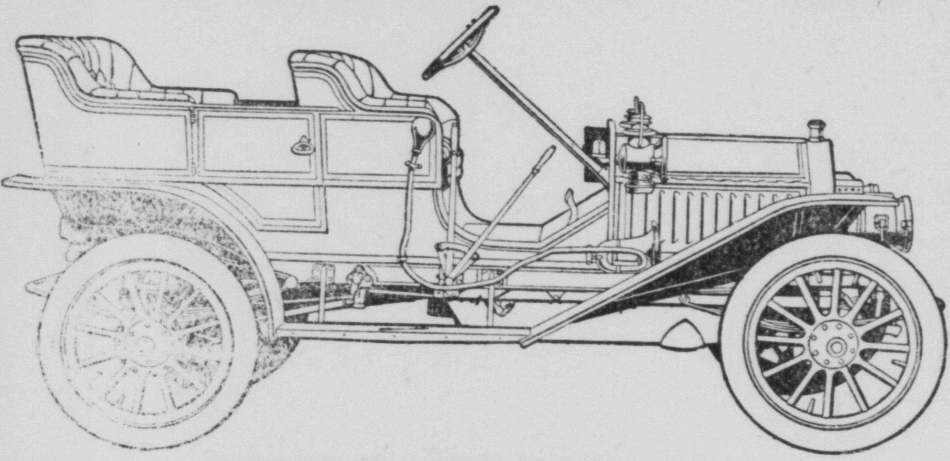

At quarantine the former President will board a revenue cutter and proceed to the Battery, where he will be officially welcomed by Mayor Gaynor. Early in the morning every available craft, laden with crowds of Roosevelt enthusiasts, will sail to meet the Kaiserin and escort her to quarantine. From this point they will escort the cutter to its destination. Several organizations which have chartered ocean-going steamers will pick up the fleet liner east of Fire Island and add the tooting of their whistles to the roar of the guns of Ft. Wadsworth and Hamilton as the ship passes through the Narrows.

The land parade will form at the Battery and proceed up Broadway to Washington Square, thence through the Washington arch and up Fifth avenue to Fifty-ninth street, the point of dismissal. At the latter point probably there will be a reviewing stand. Of course there will be other stands along the line of march, which will be profusely decorated. The parade will be led by mounted police and the mounted police band. The Roosevelt Rough Riders, forming the personal escort of Col. Roosevelt, will follow, after which will come the entire reception committee of 350 representative citizens and the visiting and local societies.

FOOD VALUES IN VEGETABLES.

The mangled onion belongs to the lily family and contains priceless elements of health and nourishment, especially to nerves and blood. The turnip, also, has medicinal and food virtue, though it is not so nourishing, containing, like the cabbage, over ninety per cent. of water. The yellow turnip is considered a mild nerve. The unpopular carrot is almost miraculous as a blood purifier, and French women consider it as important as any cosmetic. It has, also, undreamed-of possibilities of preparation. Calling things by other names sometimes helps matters, or making fashionable by favor of the famous. In Ceylon they form okra "ladies' fingers;" the vegetable marrow of Europe is virtually the same as our Summer squash, but is used in, to us, unheard-of ways. Mr. Luther Burbank has improved the "pieplant," and his new crimson Winter rhubarb is a wonderful thing. But in the ordinary type of these stalks there are riches of oxalic and malic acids, the value of which the physicians of the world have always recognized—The Delineator for June.

BUICK MODEL 10

June 19th

Was the day Louis Chevrolet got his Buick car all harnessed up. Loco, Knox, Stoddard, Apperson, Fiat and other cars were racing for the big Cobe Cup. Bill Mead timed Chevrolet a mile a minute, they say, with his Buick; all other cars he passed. Cyrus joined the crowd as they called aloud. Chevrolet made the grandstand gasp. The women hollowed, "Chevro'et's won," and the crowd yelled out as one, "I love my horse and wagon, but oh you Buick Car."

Statue on City Speed

The following statutes have been selected, setting forth speed limit in city and town limits:

The statute of 1905 is said to still be in force. It specifies the highest speed that may be manifested and fixes as a penalty a fine of not more than $50 for violation of any of its provisions. That portion of the statute bearing upon the kind of vehicles, speed, etc., is as follows:

"Motor Vehicles" shall include all vehicles propelled by any power other than muscular power, excepting traction engines, road rollers and such motor vehicles as run only upon rails or track.

Sec. 2. That any person or persons operating a motor vehicle on any highway or in any public place shall not operate the same at any rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the use in common of such highway or place, or so as to endanger the life or limb of any person, and in no event shall such motor vehicle be operated at greater rate of speed than eight (8) miles an hour in the business and closely built up portions of any municipalities of this State, nor any more than fifteen (15) miles an hour in other portions of such municipalities, nor more than twenty (20) miles an hour outside such municipalities.

The following paragraph was added to the above law by the legislature of 1907:

Upon approaching a bridge, dam, sharp curve, or steep descent and also in traversing such bridge, dam, sharp curve or descent, and upon approaching a crossing of intersecting highways, a person operating a motor vehicle shall have it under control and operate it at a speed not greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the safety of traffic then on such highway and of the public: Provided, further, That after dark all automobiles shall carry lighted lamps.

There was no change in 1909 that would invalidate the foregoing provision though a clause was added providing for the punishment of any person who operated a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

There are about three thousand weddings every twenty-four hours, taking the entire world into consideration.

If your Stomach, Heart, or Kidney are weak, try at least, a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerves. When these nerves fail, the depending organs must of necessity falter. This plain, yet vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell. Sold by F. E. Wolcott.

WANTED—A MONSTER.

The Retail Merchant's Association will convene in special session in the court house assembly room next Wednesday evening. What for? If there is a business man in Rushville who does not know the purpose of that meeting, it is his duty to find out immediately. Every business man, who is at all interested in his own business, should at least give the meeting a boost by his presence. Every business man who does not want to succeed, who does not want more business, who wants Rushville to stand still, is not wanted. Real live business men looking to the best interests of not only themselves, but Rushville are wanted and they are wanted in large numbers.

At the regular meeting of the association Thursday night, it was unanimously agreed that the executive and manufacturing committees should hold a meeting, when they would formulate and agree upon a plan for establishing a permanent factory fund. This is of vital importance to every business man and he should be present to hear what is going on. It is probable that there will be work to do for every business man.

Don't make any engagements for next Wednesday night. You will get a daily reminder in the Daily Republican every evening of the approaching meeting and there can be no excuse of another engagement. It is absolutely necessary that every business man in Rushville who wishes to progress and keep apace with the times come to the meeting and swell it with the number of pounds which he carries and the amount of space which he fills in the atmosphere. Not only that but his enthusiasm is also wanted.

The Indianapolis Star thinks that the failure of President Taft to join in denouncing Secretary Ballinger is due to a desire on his part to justify Mr. Ballinger's original selection as a member of the cabinet, says the Muncie Press. There may be mingled with this, too, a desire to justify President Roosevelt in bringing Mr. Ballinger from Seattle, giving him a responsible post, and landing him in private and public as a man who was making a great personal sacrifice to enter and remain in the public service. The effort to discredit Secretary Ballinger is an insidious attack upon President Roosevelt and his policies by politicians and newspapers concealing their real motives. Of course, if Mr. Ballinger is a crook and a grafter President Roosevelt is censurable for imposing him upon the government as an official, and handing him over as a heritage to the Taft administration.

The Kind That Counts.

The Republican believes in being more liberal with its praise than with its criticism. Consequently we can not commend too highly the interest which the business men are now taking toward general improvement of business conditions.

A called meeting will be held Wednesday night and it is to be hoped that ninety per cent of the membership of the Retail Merchants' Association will be in attendance. Plans will be reported and probably adopted for raising money for a factory fund. The factory committee has found itself unable to give a proposition serious consideration until it has a foundation on which to work.

This interest in bettering conditions here should by no means be limited to the merchants. There are others who are just as much interested as the merchants. Although the number of empty houses in Rushville has been grossly exaggerated the fact remains that there are too many. The owners of these houses surely would be interested in bringing more people here. The owners of empty lots can readily figure how the value of this property would be increased with a growth in the city. These men then should lend their good will to the efforts of the merchants' association—and more than their good will, lend their money when the time comes.

But back to the merchants' association. The enthusiasm manifested at the meeting last Thursday night is just the kind that will start things humming. Keep the enthusiasm running—enthusiasm not excitement—and there will be no time for jealousy to creep in. Nothing is too big for an enthusiastic and united effort of the Rushville merchants. Anything is too big for a divided and half hearted effort.

Things will happen at the meeting of the association Wednesday night. It behooves every business man to be there and express his opinion. Let's keep the enthusiasm running and see what the result will be.

'Pon our word we are going to quit saying anything about the comet in a few days now.

Arlington people are vying with each other to see who can testify in the most divorce trials.

Nor will the Posey township young people be "encouraged" by the number of divorce suits from that locality.

The comet did stunts yesterday. Due probably to the Indiana Sunday laws.

"Postoffice's goin' to move," remarked the Saturday night corner loafer.

"Letter" move," replied the disinterested listener.

The first man "stamped" his foot in disgust—and in the mud—and walked away.

Rushville men are now pointing out to their wives how the Carthage women cut the grass, haul the trash away, and in fact do all the work around the house.

Already the small boy is making glorious plans for that safe and sane fourth.

Carthage Scraped Scoured and Cleaned by It's Women

Not Satisfied With It's Reputation for Beauty and Now It is Actually "Scrumptious."

Carthage which has always had the reputation of being a pretty village, had decided that's not sufficient. Or rather the women have decided. They have cleaned the town from border to border and instead of being merely beautiful it is "scrumptious" now.

The Indianapolis News tells of the work in this fashion:

"What clean streets and well kept lawns!"

"Yes," came the answer, "the women have charge of the town now."

For fifteen years the Woman's Literary Circle of Carthage held its regular meeting, during which time its members discussed politics and religion and almost everything else under the sun save the work of cleaning up their own door yards. Then the influence of Zueblin reached Carthage. That was a year ago. The Woman's Literary Circle heard the call for civic improvement, and talked the matter over and made plans. A committee of five was appointed to co-operate with the town board. Of this committee, however, only two, Mrs. O. S. Hill and Mrs. Clark Gause, worked up their courage sufficiently to assume the responsibility of going before the board with a plea for help to carry out their plans.

Carthage, for years, has been well shaded, well paved and well painted, and its town board had rested comfortably under the impression that it had performed its duty. It had never been asked to have any cleaner streets or back yards, and it had never bestirred itself in that direction. Nobody had complained that certain ordinances had not been enforced; nobody seemed to know there were certain ordinances. But when these two women knocked at the door of the town officials, they received the glad hand and the support they asked for.

"Get your trash ready to haul away," voted the board, "and we will bear the expense of hauling."

With this encouragement the women became more enthusiastic. They organized the Village Improvement Association, divided the town into districts and appointed a woman to look after each district. They pressed into service every available man, woman and child, and each district vied with the others in cleaning out yards and alleys—old fences, old chicken coops, old cans, old bones, any old thing—all went to the rubbish pile to be hauled away. Trees were trimmed, streets were scraped, vacant lots lost their growth of rank weeds, and lawn mowers clicked industriously. In short, Carthage looked as if it had paid a visit to the barber.

A page from the records of the Woman's Literary Circle reads: "Plans for working out this ideal were adopted by the W. L. C. April 12, 1909. The plan is to divide the town into districts, each district to be under the care of a committee whose duty it will be to report all unsanitary or unsightly matter in their district to the proper authorities. Our thought is to work in harmony with the town officials and to create public sentiment for the beautifying and improvement of both public and private property. Membership does not involve either dues or fines. Anyone is eligible who is willing to contribute his mite in a united effort for the welfare of the community and to make of Carthage a village beautiful."

And so satisfactory was the result of the labors of the Village Improvement Association last year, that this year the good work is being continued, with Mrs. O. S. Hill as president of the organization and the following named faithful workers as chairmen of the seventeen districts in the order named: Mrs. Ella Newsom, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Hill, Mrs. Mabel McCarty, Mrs. Eliza H. Hill, Mrs. Lizzie Conaway, Mrs. Lizzie P. Hill, Miss Florence B. Hunt, Mrs. Alma S. Henley, Mrs. Ida S. Henley, Mrs. Carrie Clark, Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Laura Hinshaw, Mrs. Linna Henley, Mrs. Edith Lovett, Mrs. Sallie G. Stager, Mrs. Cora N. McCarty, Mrs. Naomi McDuffy.

Carthage is conspicuous for the absence of cheap lattice screens set up to hide unsightly places. It has no whitewashed "rookeries" and its flower beds are minus the whitewashed border stones that disfigure many a yard in other towns. Its lawns are trim, its shrubbery is neatly placed and its maple trees shade pretty cottages that have simplicity for their keynote. Right in the center of the village is the library; to the south the school building, and scattered over the town the several churches. A few minutes' ride on a branch of the Big Four and an hour's trolley travel puts it in touch with Indianapolis.

Cat Adopts Chickens

The cat at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Avery of St. Paul had the misfortune of losing its young by drowning. At about the same time five little chickens were hatched and were deserted by the mother hen.

The chicks were taken into the Avery home and placed near the fire to keep warm. In a short time the little birds were missed, and a search was instituted for them. It was found that the cat had carried them upstairs and placed them in a nice warm bed and was nearby guarding them.

The chicks were taken back to the stove and the next day they again were missed. It was found that the cat had again shown her devotion for them and had carried them into the summer house and placed them in a barrel of paper. This time the cat was lying in the barrel, playfully stroking the chicks with her paw.

Mrs. Avery once more took the chicks into the house and vowed her vengeance on the cat. But Tabby apparently did not approve of this. She was determined that the birds should not go motherless. As she had lost her young she displayed sympathy for the chicks having lost their mother.

So the next day the cat sneaked into the house, obtained the chicks and took them to a hen owned by a neighbor, Mrs. Grace Enos, where she left them.

We can relieve every one of the burdensome detail in connection with an investigation of the security offered by Dodge Manufacturing Company, Mishawaka, in its issue of preferred stock. We have gone into it thoroughly, and have confirmed the truth of every statement. We want you to examine the evidence.

The captain beckoned to Maloney. "Not so fast, young man. Before we go to the station we want to ask you a few questions. Don't we, Maloney?"

The sergeant came over, and the captain whispered something in his ear. Howard shivered. Suddenly turning to his prisoner, the captain shouted in the stern tone of command:

"Get up!" Howard did as he was ordered. He felt he must. There was no resisting that powerful brute's tone of authority. Pointing to the other side of the table, the captain went on:

"Stand over there where I can look at you!"

The two men now faced each other, the small table alone separating them. The powerful electric light over head cast its light full on Howard's haggard face and on the captain's scowling features. Suddenly Maloney turned off every electric light except the lights in the electric roller, the glare of which was intensified by the surrounding darkness. The rest of the room was in shadow. One saw only these two figures standing vividly out in the strong light—the white-faced prisoner and his stalwart inquisitor. In the dark background stood Policeman Delaney. Close at hand was Maloney taking notes.

"You did it, and you know you did it!" thundered the captain, fixing his eyes on his trembling victim.

"I did not do it," replied Howard slowly and firmly, returning the policeman's stare.

"You're lying!" shouted the captain. "I'm not lying," replied Howard calmly.

The captain glared at him for a moment and then suddenly tried new tactics.

"Why did you come here?" he demanded.

"I came to borrow money."

"Did you get it?"

"No—he said he couldn't give it to me."

"Then you killed him."

"I did not kill him," replied Howard positively.

Thus the searching examination went on, mercilessly, tirelessly. The same questions, the same answers, the same accusations, the same denials, hour after hour. The captain was tired, but being a giant in physique, he could stand it. He knew that his victim could not. It was only a question of time when the latter's resistance would be weakened. Then he would stop lying and tell the truth. That's all he wanted—the truth.

"You shot him!"

"You shot him!"

"You shot him!"

"You shot him!"

"You're lying!"
"I'm not lying—it's the truth."
So it went on, hour after hour, relentlessly, pitilessly, while the patient Maloney, in the obscure background, took notes.

CHAPTER X.

The clock ticked on, and still the merciless browbeating went on. They had been at it now five long, weary hours. Through the blinds the gray daylight outside was creeping its way in. All the policemen were exhausted. The prisoner was on the verge of collapse. Maloney and Patrolman Delaney were dozing on chairs, but Capt. Clinton, a marvel of iron will and physical strength, never relaxed for a moment. Not allowing himself to weaken or show signs of fatigue, he kept pounding the unhappy youth with searching questions.

By this time Howard's condition was pitiable to witness. His face was white as death. His trembling lips could hardly articulate. It was with the greatest difficulty that he kept on his feet. Every moment he seemed about to fall. At times he clutched the table nervously, for fear he would stumble. Several times, through sheer exhaustion, he sat down. The act was almost involuntary. Nature was giving way.

"I can't stand any more," he murmured. "What's the good of all these questions? I tell you I didn't do it."

He sank helplessly on to a chair. His eyes rolled in his head. He looked as if he would faint.

"Stand up!" thundered the captain angrily.

Howard obeyed mechanically, although he reeled in the effort. To steady himself, he caught hold of the table. His strength was fast ebbing. He was losing his power to resist. The captain saw he was weakening, and he smiled with satisfaction. He'd soon get a confession out of him. Suddenly bending forward, so that his fierce, determined stare glared right into Howard's half closed eyes, he shouted:

"You did it and you know you did it!"

"No—I—" replied Howard weakly.

"These repeated denials are useless!" shouted the captain. "There's already enough evidence to send you to the chair!"

Howard shook his head helplessly. Weakly he replied:

"This constant questioning is making me dizzy. Good God! What's the use of questioning me and questioning me? I know nothing about it."

"Why did you come here?" thundered the captain.

"I've told you over and over again. We're old friends. I came to borrow money. He owed me a few hundred dollars when we were at college together, and I tried to get it. I've told you so many times. You won't believe me. My brain is tired. I'm thoroughly exhausted. Please let me go. My poor wife won't know what's the matter."

"Never mind about your wife," growled the captain. "We've sent for her. How much did you try to borrow?"

Howard was silent a moment, as if racking his brain, trying to remember.

"A thousand—two thousand. I forget. I think one thousand."

"Did he say he'd lend you the money?" demanded the inquisitor.

"No," replied the prisoner, with hesitation. He couldn't—he—poor chap—he—

"Ah!" snapped the captain. "He refused—that led to words. There was a quarrel, and—"

Suddenly leaning forward until his face almost touched Howard's, he hissed rather than spoke: "You shot him!"

Howard gave an involuntary step backward, as if he realized the trap being laid for him.

"No, no!" he cried.

Quickly following up his advantage, Capt. Clinton shouted dramatically:

"You lie! He was found on the floor in this room—dead. You were trying to get out of the house without being seen. You hadn't even stopped to wash the blood off your hands. All you fellows make mistakes. You relied on getting away unseen. You never stopped to think that the blood on your hands would betray you."

Gruffly he added: "Now, come, what's the use of wasting all this time? It won't go so hard with you if you own up. You killed Robert Underwood!"

Howard shook his head. There was a pathetic expression of helplessness on his face.

"I didn't kill him," he faltered. "I was asleep on that sofa. I woke up. It was dark. I went out. I wanted to get home. My wife was waiting for me."

"Now I've caught you lying," interrupted the captain quickly. "You told the coroner you saw the dead man and feared you would be suspected of his murder, and so tried to get away unseen." Turning to his men, he added: "How is that, Maloney? Did the prisoner say that?"

The sergeant consulted his back notes, and replied: "Yes, Cap, that's what he said."

Suddenly Capt. Clinton drew from his hip pocket the revolver which he had found on the floor near the dead man's body. The supreme test was about to be made. The wily police captain would now play his trump card. It was not without reason that his enemies charged him with employing unlawful methods in conducting his inquisitorial examinations.

"Stop your lying!" he said fiercely. "Tell the truth, or we'll keep you here until you do. The motive is clear. You came for money. You were refused, and you did the trick."

Suddenly producing the revolver, and holding it well under the light, so that the rays from the electric roller fell directly on its highly polished surface, he shouted:

"Howard Jeffries, you shot Robert Underwood, and you shot him with this pistol!"

Howard gazed at the shining surface of the metal as if fascinated. He spoke not a word, but his eyes became riveted on the weapon until his face assumed a vacant stare. From the scientific standpoint, the act of hypnotism had been accomplished. In his nervous and overfatigued state, added to his susceptibility to quick hypnosis, he was now directly under the influence of Capt. Clinton's stronger will. He was completely receptive. The past seemed all a blur on his mind. He saw the flash of steel and the police captain's angry, determined-looking face. He felt he was powerless to resist that will any longer. He stepped back and gave a shudder, averting his eyes from the blinding steel. Capt. Clinton quickly followed up his advantage:

"You committed this crime, Howard Jeffries!" he shouted, fixing him with a stare. To his subordinate he shouted: "Didn't he, Maloney?"

"He killed him all right," echoed Maloney.

His eyes still fixed on those of his victim, and approaching his face close to his, the captain shouted:

"You did it, Jeffries! Come on, own up! Let's have the truth! You shot Robert Underwood with this revolver. You did it, and you can't deny it! You know you can't deny it! Speak!" he thundered. "You did it!"

Howard, his eyes still fixed on the shining pistol, repeated, as if reciting a lesson:

"I did it!"

Quickly Capt. Clinton signaled to Maloney to approach nearer with his note-book. The detective sergeant took his place immediately back of Howard. The captain turned to his prisoner:

"You shot Robert Underwood!"

"I shot Robert Underwood," repeated Howard mechanically.

"You quarreled!"

"We quarreled."

"You came here for money!"

"I came here for money."

"He refused to give it to you!"

"He refused to give it to me."

"There was a quarrel!"

"There was a quarrel."

"You drew that pistol!"

"I drew that pistol."

"And shot him!"

"And shot him."

Capt. Clinton smiled triumphantly. "That's all," he said.

Howard collapsed into a chair. His head dropped forward on his breast, as if he were asleep. Capt. Clinton yawned and looked at his watch. Turning to Maloney, he said with a chuckle:

"By George; it's taken five hours to get it out of him!"

Maloney turned off the electric lights and went to pull up the window shades, letting the bright daylight stream into the room. Suddenly there was a ring at the front door. Officer Delaney opened, and Dr. Bernstein entered. Advancing into the room, he shook hands with the captain.

"I'm sorry I couldn't come before, captain. I was out when I got the call. Where's the body?"

The captain pointed to the inner room.

"In there."

After glancing curiously at Howard, the doctor disappeared into the inner room.

Capt. Clinton turned to Maloney.

"Well, Maloney, I guess our work is done here. We want to get the prisoner over to the station, then make out a charge of murder, and prepare the full confession to submit to the magistrate. Have everything ready by nine o'clock. Meantime, I'll go down and see the newspaper boys. I guess there's a bunch of them down there. Of course, it's too late for the morning papers, but it's a bully good story for the afternoon editions. Delaney, you're responsible for the prisoner. Better handcuff him."

The patrolman was just putting the manacles on Howard's wrists when Dr. Bernstein re-entered from the inner room. The captain turned.

"Well, have you seen your man?" he asked.

The doctor nodded.

"Found a bullet wound in his head," he said. "Flesh all burned—must have been pretty close range. It might have been a case of suicide."

To be Continued.

A NOBLE RECORD

Of many hundreds of thousands of cures forms a well sustained basis for every claim put forth by the makers of DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY as a remedy for many of the troublesome affections which afflict mankind; yet it is not extolled as a "cure-all" by any means. No extravagant promises are flaunted before the public to arouse false hopes in the afflicted. Your neighbors probably know of some of its many cures; ask them.

Through strengthening and arousing the stomach, liver and bowels into vigorous action, digestion is promoted, whereby the blood is enriched and purified, disease-producing bacteria destroyed and expelled from the body, and thus a long list of skin, scrofulous and kindred affections are overcome and sound, vigorous health established.

The "Discovery" contains no alcohol and no habit-forming drugs, and has its every ingredient printed on its wrappers. This OPEN PUBLICITY places it in a class distinct from the ordinary secret nostrums with which it has no relationship. Physicians, therefore, do not hesitate to prescribe it in bad cases of indigestion, torpid liver or biliousness and in skin and blood affections. People of intelligence and keen discernment employ it. The "Discovery" is a pure glyceric extract of native medicinal roots of great curative potency, and can in no case do harm to either child or adult. The aged find it a great invigorator.

You can learn more about this time proven and popular "Discovery" from the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, a newly revised, up-to-date edition of which is now offered, in cloth covers, post-paid, for 31 cents in one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only; or in paper covers 21 cents. If Sick

Don't risk even one single penny!

And I will tell you why I say this.

It is because every package of Dr. Shoop's medicine is absolutely free if it fails.

No one need risk even one single penny.

Just think what this means to the suffering sick!

No risk, no expense, nothing whatever unless health first returns. For 30 full days, and without the risk of a single penny, you can use either of my two famous remedies—Dr. Shoop's Restorative or Dr. Shoop's Pneumatic Remedy.

Then why take any chance whatever?

Why purchase any medicine whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?

And besides, I am no stranger to you.

My "No Risk" plan has made Dr. Shoop's Restorative a household name in every drug store in the land. The doctor who said, "We take no chance whatever here."

For twenty years Dr. Shoop's medicines have become thoroughly standardized all over America.

And I have consulted honest and responsible druggists in every city and village everywhere to acquire the best and most reliable. These selected druggists are placing my medicines with the sick—and the entire risk is mine alone.

But write me first for an order.

I have an agent in almost every community—but all druggists are not authorized to grant the 30 day test.

So drop me a line, please—and thus save all disappointments and delays.

Besides, you are free to consult me by letter as you would your home physician. Do so freely and fully—if you desire. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost. Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan.

Besides, the books will open up new and helpful ideas to you. They tell of my 30 years experience at the bedside in homes and in hospitals. All phases of illness and relief are told of here. They tell of a "Heart Inside Nerve" no larger than a silken thread, that gives to the Heart its impulse. How the Stomach and Kidney each have their inside or power nerve. How these organs surely falter when these controlling or master nerves begin to fail. How Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing nerves and rebuilds, and restores the lost tone and power. I can surely help you—if it is within the power of medicine to do so. My best effort is surely worth your simple request. So write now, while it is fresh in my mind, for tomorrow never comes. Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

Will You Pay LIFE INSURANCE or DEATH INSURANCE-Which?

People willingly pay large sums for life insurance, which is really death insurance, but real life insurance frequently consists in taking Eckman's Alternative.

Can any "lung sick" person afford not to take the Alternative? Investigate it. Write this very day for letters, testimonials and affidavits showing that it really has CURED Tuberculosis.

Eggs and milk fatten, without curing. Eggs cost, say, 30 cents a dozen. Forced feeding with eggs and milk (30 eggs a day, $1.50 a week—3 quarts milk a day, at 8 cents, $1.60) costs over $3 a week.

Eckman's Alternative sharpens the appetite, makes life look different, brings better health with greater earning power, often persons are so much improved that they can work even before they are finally cured.

Send today for literature on the subject, if you are broad minded enough to believe that there can be a cure which has not been sensationally exploited, or which is not based merely on climatic or diet restrictions.

Eckman's Alternative is good for all Throat and Lung troubles, and is on sale in Rushville at Lytle's Drug Store and other Druggists. It can also be obtained at, or procured by, your local Druggists. Ask for Booklet of Cured Cases or write for Evidence to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa.

MAY LOSE REWARD BY A TECHNICALITY

Brazil Policeman Sees $200 Go Glimmering.

Brazil, Ind., May 23.—Because Arthur Green was sentenced to the penitentiary on the charge of burglarizing Miller & Son's store at Cloverland, instead of the postoffice, Patrolman Robert Gabbart will have to wait for a period of eight years until Green has completed his sentence and can be arraigned for the postoffice robbery, before he can claim the reward of $200 offered by the government for the arrest and conviction of the postoffice robbers.

Shortly after the arrest and conviction of Green here, Patrolman Gabbart received a blank from Chief Wilkie of the United States secret service, which he was asked to fill out in making application for the $200 reward for the conviction of the postoffice thieves.

In looking over the application it was discovered that the conviction of the robber on the charge of burglarizing the postoffice had to be set out and when the record was looked up in the circuit court it was found that Green had been sentenced to prison on the charge of burglarizing Miller & Son's store at Cloverland.

The local officers declare the matter was taken up with United States District Attorney Miller at the time, but that he did not pay any attention to the case, and for that reason Green was sentenced in the local courts for burglary instead of being tried on the charge of robbing three postoffices.

MADE A MISTAKE

New Jersey Hawk Thought to Make Meal on Girl's Hat.

Singac, N. J., May 23.—While on her way to church yesterday Miss Margaret McPhail had an exciting experience with a huge chicken hawk, which made off with her chandelier hat.

When near the schoolhouse on Pompton turnpike, she first noticed the hawk hovering over her, but paid no particular attention to it. The bird, after circling about and swinging nearer and nearer to her, suddenly swooped down on her head and seized the hat. It fluttered and pulled at the headgear, while Miss McPhail screamed. Two girl friends ran to her assistance. By that time the hatpins had worked loose and the hawk flew away with the headgear in its claws. When over the Passaic river the bird evidently discovered it had made a mistake and dropped the hat.

Washington, May 23.—President Taft, Mrs. Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, King George of England, President Diaz of Mexico and W. J. Bryan were made life members of the World's Sunday School association in the convention here, amid scenes of great enthusiasm. For each of those so honored, $1,000 had to be subscribed, and the subscriptions were made up with a hurrah by the enthusiastic delegates.

Verne Hartelroad Convicted.

Wabash, Ind., May 23.—Verne Hartelroad, twenty-six years old, was convicted in the Wabash circuit court of intent to kill Mrs. Floyd J. Webb, and sentenced to from two to fourteen years in prison. Hartelroad shot down Mrs. Webb while the two were alone in the Webb home, March 26. Mrs. Webb had to be carried to the witness stand.

Illinois Mines Tied Up.

BOTH PARTIES INVITE FIGHT

Machine Methods Being Resisted At Indianapolis.

COURT MAY HAVE TO SETTLE IT

Anti-Machine Voters in Both the Old Parties at Indianapolis Declare That Ruling of Election Commissioners Regarding the Burning of Primary Ballots Is in the Interest of the "Machines" of the Respective Parties.

Indianapolis, May 23.—A question which is giving the anti-machine candidates for office in this county a great deal of uneasiness has come up in connection with the coming primaries tomorrow, and both Republicans and Democrats who are fighting the machines in their respective parties believe that the way has been opened for glaring frauds against the ballot. The primary election commissioners have ruled that all "undisputed" ballots must be destroyed by the officers of the election at each polling place and only those that are disputed shall be preserved.

The men who are fighting the two political machines charge that the destruction of the ballots will permit the election officers, all of whom are creatures of machines, to destroy all the ballots and thus make illegal voting possible, with no means afterward to verify the ballots if charges of fraud are made. At a meeting held Sunday it was decided to appeal to the courts for an order restraining the election officers from destroying any of the ballots. Many friends of candidates have been drawn into the controversy and hundreds have urged the election officers to reverse their ruling, but they refuse to do so.

BREAD ON THE WATERS

Servant Girl's Act of Kindness to Tramp Rewarded After Many Years.

Evansville, Ind., May 23.—Behind the crumpled and jagged piece of grocery paper sacking with its faint and almost illegible scrawl of words filed before Probate Commissioner Hawkins as the only authentic will of Marshall McMurran, demented miser, lies the story of a footsore and sickened tramp, a servant girl's samaritan act of feeding him bread and a cup of coffee and a reward, after twenty years, in the inheritance of all of his $60,000 estate. Mrs. Mattie Hannum of Vincennes, Ind., who was then Mattie Drain of Vincennes, came to Evansville and appeared before the probate commissioner to enter the small scrap of paper as the only real testament that McMurran made. The will is dated Sept. 7, 1889, the date on which McMurran begged at the door of William Coogan's house at Vincennes, where Miss Drain was then working, for something to eat.

The girl fed the tramp and he asked for a scrap of paper, upon which he wrote a will, duly witnessed, leaving to her all property of which he might be possessed. While never expecting to profit by the strange instrument, Miss Drain (now Mrs. Hannum) kept the paper, and when she heard a few days ago of the astonishing discovery made after McMurran's death that the old man was wealthy, she prepared to assert her rights under the will.

Because of the size of McMurran's estate and the close relationship of a number of the heirs, a hotly fought contest is inevitable. It is certain that McMurran had at least $60,000 and some of those who knew him best believe he had nearly $100,000.

Martin Hobbs to Be Tried Again.

Hazleton, Ind., May 23.—The Loomiller murder case is set for trial tomorrow. County Prosecutor Trippett states that he has built up a strong case and intends to probe the crime to the bottom. Martin Hobbs, once tried for the murder of John C. Loomiller several years ago, is now in the county jail at Princeton. Hobbs was acquitted at the former trial and was rearrested because of certain statements he is said to have made.

Aged Woman Hangs Herself.

Anderson, Ind., May 23.—When Noah Whetsell, a prominent farmer living six miles south of the city, searched for his aged wife when she was missed at the house, he was astounded to find her lifeless body dangling from a rope in the meat-house. Mrs. Whetsell is said to have been despondent for the last few days. She was seventy-five years old and came to Madison county fifty years ago.

Indiana Stone Makes a Hit.

Bloomington, Ind., May 23.—To be chiseled into six beautiful statues and to occupy places in the Park Royale of Paris, France, a half dozen blocks of Monroe county stone, said to be the largest ever lifted out of an Indiana stone quarry, were sent on six of the heaviest flatcars to New York city, where they will be placed on a steamer for their final destination.

Will Meet at Evansville.

Dickson, Tenn., May 23.—Evansville, Ind., will entertain the next general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. This was decided by acclamation after Paducah, Ky., and Warrensburg, Mo., had withdrawn from the race.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and Rushville People Know it.

A bad back is always bad.

Bad at night when bedtime comes, Just as bad in the morning.

Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it?

Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?

If you don't, some Rushville people do. Read it:

George Priest, 223 West Third Street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I was bothered by attacks of kidney trouble for several years and as time passed my condition became worse. There was a dull pain directly over my kidneys and I had spells of dizziness and weakness. My sight often became blurred and I knew that something must be done. Three years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and were so highly recommended that I got a box at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store. They proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever taken and in a short time had entirely relieved me. On several occasions during the past three years I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and they have always given entire satisfaction."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Here's a New Version

Sessions of school all the year around would be a good thing, especially in the crowded districts, according to Robert J. Ale, State superintendent of public instruction. However, he does not favor compulsory education throughout the year, but he believes that the school houses should be open to those who desire to take advantage of the opportunity to attend school during the time in which the doors are closed under our present system.

He points out that especially in the cities there are many children whose parents have difficulty in finding something for them to do or in caring for them during the vacation period. In this connection he commends the school playground as a device for keeping the child out of mischief and in giving it a chance to have its recreation in a beneficial way. That the teachers would not object to increased-length of the term is the opinion of the State superintendent.

VERSION BOX

That the star of Bethlehem was not a miraculous heavenly guide but was only the comet which now bears the name of Halley, was the declaration made from the pulpit by N. E. Spicer, of St. Paul's Universalist church, in Webster City, Iowa. Mr. Spicer employed arithmetical computation in support of his contention that the comet was due to appear at the time the mysterious star guided the wise men to the birthplace of Christ.

Bible students generally agree, according to Rev. Mr. Spicer, that Jesus was born four years before the time known as the year 1 A. D. Halley's comet is seen regularly at periods of from seventy-five to seventy-six years. Figuring backward, the pastor said he had found that the comet was due at the time of the birth of Jesus.

Its movements, also he declared, were similar to the recorded movements of the star of Bethlehem. It appears in the east and moves in a southward course.

An Extraordinary Opportunity For Indiana Investors

A Preferred Stock Issue by the Dodge Manufacturing Co., Which is Non-Taxable—and Without a Risk—Yet Pays 6% Dividends

NEVER have the people of Indiana been offered a better investment than this we announce today. The opportunity is such as occurs rarely.

For the man with a few idle hundred dollars, its advantages are apparent. They are obvious equally to those with tens of thousands at command.

A Non-Taxable Income

Purchase of shares in this preferred stock issue of the Dodge Manufacturing Company, Mishawaka, Indiana, will secure you an assured income.

Upon your income there can be no taxes—under the laws of the State of Indiana.

Nor can you incur any liability in the company's affairs. This is guaranteed under the iron-bound terms of the stock contract—filed with the Secretary of State of Indiana.

Your income begins from the date of the certificates. It is 6% per annum, payable January 1st and July 1st.

We point to many other desirable features of this stock.

The Absolute Certainty

Most men today know the Dodge Manufacturing Co. They know it manufactures everything for the mechanical transmission of power. They will understand that the name guarantees the absolute certainty of the investment.

There is no element of speculation. There can be no risk.

The capital stock of the Dodge Company is $1,000,000. The surplus and reserves total $1,167,852.

The preferred stock issue now authorized is $1,500,000. The shares are $100 each.

Ten thousand shares, or $1,000,000 worth of stock, are now to be sold.

Undoubtedly the issue will be far over-subscribed.

The Dodge Growth

The growth of this great industry makes one of the most interesting chapters of the Nation's business history.

From a cradle in an old frame mill 31 years ago, the Dodge Company has expanded to cover about nineteen acres of floor space today. It employs more than 1200 operatives.

The real estate and plant are worth nearly a million and a half dollars.

The company has never had an unprofitable year. Year by year the business has grown more profitable.

Last year was the greatest year of all—partly due to general adoption of the Dodge Line by mill and factory—partly to a national educational advertising campaign.

The demand for the Dodge Line is permanent.
